

ROLE: Media Responsible

The Media Responsible has the overall responsibility to coordinate all media activities related to the ship's voyage and the crew's work.

Responsibilities

The Media Responsible is responsible for capturing interesting stories, together with videos and photos. and upload them to the provided link to Google Drive. MEDIA RESPONSIBLE LINK
Create new Google Docs for written stories and information that can be used together with media.

As Media Responsible you have the responsibility to do the following:

- Inform the crew about expected media activities during the voyage.
- Capture media content when possible/appropriate.
- Coordinate media activities with the Stage Responsible and the Captain.
- Handling press inquiries and acting as a point of contact for the media.
- Inform the crew that when posting on their own SOME channels it's important to tag the official Saga Farmann SOME channels.
- The crew must use the provided link to upload photos/videos to Google Drive. CREW LINK

Requirements and skills to fulfil the role

The following requirements define the role:

- Interest in creating media content
- Some experience in how to create good content
- Used to use technology to capture, edit and upload media content

Tips for capturing engaging content:

- People in "action"
- Close and personal
- Interviews with crew about the life on board
- Weather and nature

Organizational setup

See illustration below.

Media Responsible is a crew member with additional responsibility

Organization when on the voyage

